DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- I. Claims 1-7 and 10, drawn to polypeptides, classified in class 530, subclass 350.
- II. Claims 8,9, and 11-13, drawn to polynucleotides and means of expression, classified in class 435, subclasses 69.1, 320.1, and 325, and class 536, subclass 23.5.
- III. Claims 14-21, drawn to methods of treatment, classified in class 514, subclass 2.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The type II TGF-beta receptor is known in the art (e.g. WO 94/09815, provided by Applicant), as are immunoglobulin constant regions (e.g. Alberts et al., Molecular Biology of the Cell, 1989, pages 1013-1016), and thus they are not linking technical features.

The polypeptides of Invention I are not related to the polynucleotides of Invention II. They differ structurally and functionally, cannot be used together or interchangeably, and have non-coextensive searches and considerations

The polypeptides of Invention I are distinct from the methods of Invention III. The methods may be practiced with other, unrelated molecules, such as antibodies.

The polynucleotides of Invention II are not related to the methods of Invention III. They cannot be used in or affected by these methods.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the searches required for the Groups are different, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Group III, methods of treatment, contains claims directed to the following species:

- a) arthritis
- b) diabetic nephropathy
- c) glomerulonephritis
- d) proliferative vitreoretinopathy
- e) myelofibrosis
- f) systemic sclerosis
- g) polymyositis
- h) sclerodoma

i) dermatomyositis

j) systemic lupus erythematosus

If Group III is elected, Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: These are different diseases with different characteristics and a different status in the art. Successful treatment of one would not render successful treatment of another obvious..
